Notes and Quotes

By Loop and Friends

By Samuel Chandler

Recently a member of San Francisco Stake said, "I have been reading some Church history and I want to say that Irvan G. Derrick is one of the most devout Latter-day Saints in the history of the Mormons in California."

President Derrick has presided over San Francisco Stake since October 1959. He brings to his calling the training and experience of many years of active service to the Church in Salt Lake City, in San Francisco, in New York City, in Phoenix, Arizona, in Atlanta, Ga. and again in San Francisco.

President Derrick was born in Salt Lake City Dec. 17 1908, the son of Hyrum H. and Margaret Glade Derrick. There he grew up in the shadow of the Temple.

In 1932 he wed Eva Peterson of Smithfield, Utah. They have become the parents of four children: Paul Derrick, Salt Lake City, Mrs. LaMoin Olson (Joan) of Pittsburgh, Pa., Mrs. Gordon B. Moody (Sylvia) of Daly City, Calif. and Miss Dixie Derrick.

For 34 years President Derrick worked with Associated Press. Until his recent retirement, he was Traffic Bureau Chief for the San Francisco Area of Associated Press.

As a Church leader he not only serves as president of San Francisco Stake but also as regional welfare chairman, as Priesthood representative of the Latter-day Saint Student Association as chairman of the district and regional boards of education, and as a member of the Bay Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Among members of the San Francisco Stake it has become customary to speak of President Derrick's great faith and his zeal in serving the Lord.

Education Week Offers Chance For Improvement--Right Now

By Glena M. Stephens

Education is an obligation. This carefully planned week is our opportunity to prepare to better serve our families, the Church, the community, the nation, and ourselves.

Faithfulness alone is not enough. We need to take advantage of every occasion we have to develop talents, acquire skills and increase competence to serve during our time on earth.

Begin now to improve in all vital areas of service in the fields presented by this outstanding faculty. These Education Week courses were chosen by Church leaders after prayer and study.

Brigham Young University is the greatest university on earth. This is the greatest Education Week that the B.Y.U. has ever sponsored Sacrament Meeting Attendance 59.5 %!

Walnut Creek Ward's Sacrament meeting attendance has exceeded 50 per cent., for the last three years, Bishop Joseph Brown reported at the June 23 ward conference. Attendance was 59.5 per cent for the last year, up from 58 per cent the year before and 53 per cent two years ago.

One reason for the record, Bishop Brown indicated, was the effectiveness of the Home Teaching program in which 90 per cent of the homes were visited.

anywhere. When we consider that the president of the Church called in one of his counselors and asked that she personally come to our area to deliver a specific message no one can afford to miss it.

This Church firmly believes that man cannot be saved in ignorance. Our goal of salvation will be gained in direct proportion to the knowledge we acquire.

Parents and young people are urged to attend together. We all need this inspirational and educational help.

To add to our "joy" will be a concert given by The Three D's, Dick Davis Denis Sorenson, and Duane Hiatt. They apply the lighter touch. Humor often teaches lessons that "sweat and tears" fail to solve.

Classes begin July 11 through 13 at 1 p.m. at East Bay Interstake Center, 4780 Lincoln Ave., Oakland. The dinner hour is 5 to 6 p.m.

President Alvin R. Dyer will speak Thursday, July 11 only, from 2 to 2:50 p.m. — "Saved — For What and Where?" 7 to 7:50 p.m., "The Redemption of Judah" and the assembly hour, 9 to 9:50, "The World of Zion — It's Projected Future."

Elder Marion D. Hanks will lecture daily from 6 to 6:50 on "How To Enjoy The Book of Mormon" and 8 to 8:50 on How to Enjoy The Doctrine & Covenants." Elder Hanks will deliver a special message at the assembly hour Friday July 12 from 9 to 9:50.

New Marin Stake Created From Part Of Santa Rosa

Two stakes have been formed from what was formerly Santa Rosa Stake—all the area north of Greenbrae to Willits — and will be under the direction of Presidents Weston L. Roe and Sidney B. Henderson.

Reorganization took place under direction of Elder Marion G. Romney of the Council of the Twelve and Patriarch Eldred Smith, both here from Salt Lake City to effect the division and changes of personnel. Announcement of changes was made Sunday, June 23, at the quarterly conference of Santa Rosa Stake.

MARIN STAKE IS NO. 462!

The new stake will be called Marin Stake and temporarily will use the Novato Ward Church at Center and Kendon Lane in Novato as stake offices. Santa Rosa Stake will continue to use the Santa Rosa Stake Center in Santa Rosa.

Assisting President Roe in administration of the new Marin Stake will be Newell B. Stevenson of Greenbrae Ward as 1st counselor, O. William Olsen of the Novato Ward as 2nd counselor, Merrill E. Larsen of Novato Ward as clerk, and Juan J. Lynn of San Rafael Ward as assistant clerk. Marin Stake Patriarch is Wallace N. Allred of Novato Ward.

In charge of the Santa Rosa Stake since the division, in addition to President Henderson are 1st counselor M. Sid Allsop of Santa Rosa 3rd Ward; 2nd counselor Morgan J. Ririe of Santa Rosa 2nd Ward, and clerk Lavon F. Eller of Santa Rosa 2nd Ward. Patriarchs are Thomas C. Byrne and Harry M. Lewis.

The boundary line between the two stakes will be between Santa Rosa and Rohnert Park.

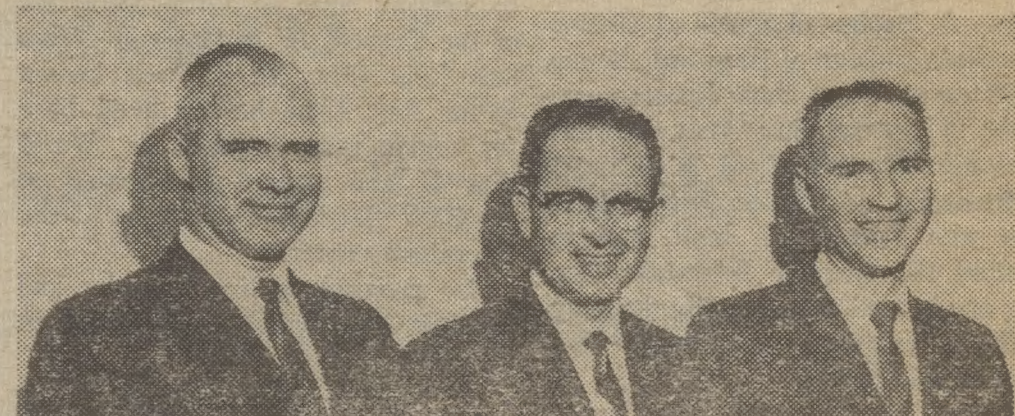

Included in Santa Rosa Stake will be Cloverdale Branch, Covelo Branch, Fort Bragg Branch, Healsburg Ward, Lakeport Branch, Lamanite Branch, Santa Rosa Ward, Santa Rosa 2nd Ward, Santa Rosa 3rd Ward, Sebastopol, Ukiah, and Willits Wards.

In Marin Stake will be Greenbrae Ward, Novato Ward, Petaluma Ward, Petaluma 2nd Ward, and San Rafael Ward.

Santa Rosa Stake was first organized in 1950 and separated from the Northern California Mission. It was reorganized and divided in April 1960 and now redivided again this year.

President Roe has been president of Santa Rosa Stake from 1960 until this division and has been called to continue leadership of Marin Stake. President Henderson had been President Roe's 2nd counselor before his new appointment.

The High Council for Marin Stake will be Edward O. Gwynn of Novato Ward; Charles R. Marsh, San Rafael Ward; Percy F. Poulson, San Rafael Ward; Paul F. Bach, Novato Ward; Marvin B. Garrett, Greenbrae

Mansfield On Temple Hill August Program

The regular "first-Sunday-of-the-month" Temple Hill Organ Concert will feature the artistry of Kenneth Mansfield at 4 a.m. Mr. Mansfield has been a frequent performer since the start of the series five years ago. A teacher of music at California State College at Hayward, he has held organist and choir director positions in several Bay Area churches recently. Mr. Mansfield is affiliated with Swain and Kates, organ builders who designed, built, and installed the original Interstake Center organ, and subsequently the magnificent enlarged instrument completed this spring.

Music is a family affair in the Mansfield household in Walnut Creek. Mrs. Mansfield is a professional soprano for whom her husband frequently acts as accompanist. She has performed two concerts in the Temple Hill series, and in addition has been prominent in light opera in the area. Two of the couple's three children (twin girls) are following in their parents' footsteps musically.

The public is invited As usual, there will be no admission charge.

Gordon Owen On Local TV

"The Vitality of Mormonism" appears over Television Channel 2, at 8:15 a.m. each Friday morning.

This new TV series, part of an every morning program by KTVU, is presented by Gordon Owen who has had a lifetime experience in radio and TV work. He is assigned to the Bay Area as a representative of the Church TV organization from Salt Lake City. He is well known in the Bay Area, having lived here for seven years prior to World War II and having participated in the BYU leadership programs at the Interstake center.

The program is live, in color and Brother Owen will have local church leaders as his guests.

Walnut Creek Stake Officers Changed

Muriel Cottle was released as Walnut Creek Stake Primary president and sustained as Stake Relief Society president at the Walnut Creek Stake quarterly conference at the East Bay Interstake Center June 16.

Sustained as her counselors were Phyllis Farr and Kathryn Pond. Her successor as Primary president is Rinda Bennion whose counselors will be Mary Rudd and Carol Jushaw.

Former presidency of the Relief Society was Beatrice Rogers, moved from the area, Dorothy Reynolds, and Phyllis Farr.

Speakers at the conference included Presidents Kenneth D. Jensen, Joseph R. Hilton, and Ronald Wyatt of the stake presidency and President Elton Howard of the California North Mission. They urged adherence to the Gospel, personal righteousness, and carrying the message to our neighbors as means of combating the riots, disorders, assassinations, and wickedness so rampant in the world.

Letters To Editor

Dear Editor:

There should be room in "The Messenger" for a public forum column.

Many people believe that the Church of the Latter Day Saints could build homes or cities for elderly people.

Wrights Off Again This Time Samoa

GLEN

CLARA

Off this month for the South Seas to begin a three-year assignment as teachers in the Church College of Western Samoa at Apia are Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wright, of Richmond Ward.

Brother and Sister Wright spent a two-week vacation in Guadalajara and Salamanca, Mexico, before flying to Samoa June 29. They were to report for duty July 2.

This is the second tour of foreign duty for the Wrights in the last four years. They were in Afghanistan in 1965 where Brother Wright served as Fulbright lecturer in journalism and advertising at Kabul University and was advisor to the government advertising agency. He was also correspondent for Copley News Service.

Brother Wright will teach English and journalism in the college's high school and continue as Copley Correspondent. Sister Wright will teach grade three in the elementary school. Total enrollment is nearly 1,000, nearly all Samoans.

The Wrights have resided in the Bay Area for the last seven years. He has taught journalism and English at Berkeley High and California State College in Hayward and she in the Berkeley and Oakland elementary schools. He also served as associate editor and feature writer for The Messenger. He is a high priest and served as Mutual speech director in Berkeley and more recently as Sunday School teacher in Richmond.

Polynesian Ward

By Kay Makaiwi

Once again the POLYNESIAN WARD presents its annual luau Aug. 17, at the California Hall, 625 Polk Street, San Francisco. Bishop Wilfred K. Laeha heads the entertainment committee this year. Henry Davidson, 1st counselor in the bishopric, heads the ticket sales and publicity; Aaron Makaiwi, 2d counselor in the bishopric, heads the food committee.

This year's POLYNESIAN PANORAMA will include native songs and dances from the South Pacific isles of New Zealand, Tahiti Tonga, Samoa, and Hawaii. The cast of nearly 80 entertainers are all members of the ward.

Included in the menu will be kalua pig, lomi salmon, poi, and chicken and long rice. For the first time last year, authentic Hawaiian delicacies were served — opihī, raw fish, limu, and crab. It was so successful and greatly appreciated by the public accustomed to eating these, that the Polynesian Ward will serve these delicacies again this year.

Tickets are now on sale for a requested contribution of $5. a person, by any member of the ward or bishopric — Bishop Laeha, 227 Collingwood, S.F. 94114, 863-4765; Brother Davidson, 45 Escanero Dr., South S.F., 761-2709; Aaron Makaiwi, 3006 Army St., S.F. 94110, 648-2567.

Bishop Laeha reports that all members of the ward who have been called to assist in any way have indicated that the POLYNESIAN PANORAMA will be the best yet.

Funds obtained from the luau will help to defray some of the ward expenses and will also assist in sponsoring many of the activities for the year.

Sacramento meeting attendance for two Sundays in June was outstanding — June 2 262; June 9, 210.

Our ward's Primary will close for its summer vacation July 27. For a closing social the Primary children will stage a Children's Friend musical under direction of the Primary presienep; Mildred Makakoa, Sally Apaka, and Esi Svabek. All parents and friends are invited.

Under direction of Leroy Lavatai, Scout leader, and Mildred Makakoa, primary presient, the Boy Scouts and the Cub Scouts in the ward are sponsoring a newspaper drive. Funds from this drive will be used to provide for more activities for the Scouts.

Eighteen Boy Scouts from Polynesian and Mission wards Wand Spanish-American Branch enjoyed an overnight camping trip at Camp Lilienthal June 21 and 22.

PELE SCOTT left for a mission in Samoa June 3. He becomes the second missionary from our ward this year. MARGARET DAVIDSON is also serving in Samoa.

Changes in the 8th quorum of elders residency include: Lefiu Iereneo, president; John Akiona, 1st counselor; Senifa Pu'efua, 2nd counselor Moliki Mulitalo, secretary.

On June 8 a successful elders and wives get-together dinner was held with the Polynesian Ward and the Spanish-American Branch. A dinner of tamales and enchiladas was served. Three folk dances from Spain, Colombia, and Costa Rica were performed by the Spanish American Branch. Polynesian dances were performed by Harriet Akiona, Maleka Siufanua, Faaletupu Mulitalo, Lusie Iereneo, Masaga Reupena, and Malo Mauia. Highlight of the evening was the recognition of four elders of the Polynesian Ward who paid their dues for the entire year Herman Barawis, Pemasa Utu, Senifa Pu'efua, an President Lefiu Iereneo.

The Primary Family Hour held June 9 with the theme centered on Reverence was impressively portrayed by the children and the ward's nearly 70-voice Primary chorus.

Tears of joy and happiness were shed as HELEN BUSH and her two daughters JULIANN and MARCEL-LINA were baptized May 4 and welcomed into the ward as members of the Church. MAGI IOANE, an active volleyball participant this past year, was also brought into the Church and baptized April 27. Just turned eight and baptized also were WILFRED LAEHA JR. and MA-OMAO NIKO JR. on May 4.

ARCHIE MAKAIWI entered the Temple for the first time May 11 and received his own endowment. On hand to witness the occasion were his mother, Julia, his brother Aaron and his wife Kay, and his sister Thelma Nawahine and her husband Henry.

Four sisters in the ward were given special recognition on Mother's Day: LILY JOHNSON as the oldest mother at 70; HAUNANI NAIPO, the youngest mother, JULIA MAKAIWI, the mother with the most children—13; MERLE LAEHA, mother of the ward.

Changes were made in the Sunday School and in the YMMIA. JEREMIAH ALIP now heads the Sunday School as superintendent with TAUMAEO AUMUA as 1st counselor and CLARENCE KAONA 2d counselor. AVALUA was sustained YMMIA superintendent. He replaces Alema Fitsefan who returned to Hawaii with his wife and children, DAVE MALAE, recently returned to the ward from New Mexico University, was sustained deacons' advisor.

Relief Society president, CLARA ALIP reported that the bazaar held May 11 was successful. Sisters who served on committees were: IINEN — Chairman, Josephine Velles, Lucy Hong, Margaret Feagaimaalii Hellen Bush, and Karlene Barawis; WHITE ELEPHANT — Chairman Caroline Davidson, Kay Makaiwi, Luisa Young, Emmaline Kala, Aloha Fanene, Francella, Aumua, BAKED GOODS — Chairman Harriet Akiona, Merle Laeha, Alvina Te'o., Salape Faamaligi Maria Kalehua, Blanche Niko; DINNER — Chairman, Elsie Svabek, Agnes Uta, afanua Southern Lusie Iereneo, Debra Lavatai, Barbara Yandall; TICKETS — Chairman, Clara Alip, Nora Te'o Lani Thompson.

Concord Stake

By BOOTS BARRUS

Culminating a year of work and inspiration, the Concord Stake Relief Society presented an outstanding evening to members of the Stake in the form of a Fashion Show and Singing Mothers Concert, on the evening of June 7. Theme for the evening was "Mrs. Relief Society, 1968" introduced in a welcome by Cleo Dahl, followed by the invocation by J. R. Nelson, High Council Advisor. The Relief Society Singing Mothers, under the direction of Lenore Wittwer, with Stake organist, Laura Muecus, acting as accompanist, sang "This Day Is Mine." Special musical numbers by mothers of each ward were interspersed throughout the evening's proceedings.

A runway, placed in the center of the hall was beautifully decorated with ivy, multi-colored shoes and wigs and the color scheme was carried out in the sarapes which were worn by the singing mothers who were seated on the stage. The Stake Leaders ere dressed in bright full-length gowns created by each lady.

Acting as narrator for the evening was Carol Tuller, who presented each model's fashion in a delightful manner, enhancing each outstanding feature of the costume with vivid descriptions and compliments. Male attendants assisting the sisters as they modeled were Vern Tueller, Ron Barr, Reed Call, Ron Jensen, Chris DeMarais and Tom Shorten.

Climax of the evening was the honoring of Stake President, Ted E. Madsen with a birthday song and cake, followed by the crowning of Stake Relief Society President, June Coe as, "Mrs. Relief Society, 1968."

Board members present and assisting with the evening were June Coe, Fern Pike, Cleo Dahl, Barbara Pemberton, Nadine Smith, Norma Eriksson, Ruth Williams, Carolyn Call, Laura Muecus, Virginia Musser, Marge Wenger and Lenore Wittwer.

Make-up was by Vivian Woodward, Hair-does and wigs by Jans of Martinez, and shoes by Hallowell's Shoe Carrol.

Modeling their own creations were: Carol Redford, Lorraine Kent, Renee Mortensen, Francis Richardson, Marilyn Ivie, Charlotte Rosevear, Barbara Hollingshead, Marie Foltz, Evelyn Randall, Joy Cullimore, Joanne Kohler, Shirley Morrison, Lola Blakely, Bro. Al Stewart, Virginia Walker, Bonnie Cutler, Rachel Ashworth, Julie Gilchrist Shirley Matthews, Lou Ann Stewart, Myrth Van Vliet, Myrna Chandler, Georgia Barr, Tonny Allebes, Bonnie Zehrung, Margaretha Allebes, Lonita Rice, Pat Proctor, Lucy Hansen, Twila Groves, Betty Holmes, Mary Bishop, Patsy Norton, Allan and Ann Hyatt, Trues Eves, Mary Scoresby, Lenore Madsen, Suzanne Moffett, Arlene Paul, Helen Fellows, Gerald Moffett, Darlene and Max Thompson, Janice Evans, Lydia Peterson, Arlene Paul, Eleanor Cornelius, Ollie Carlson, Kathy Almqvist, Trudy Fountain, Catherine Woloff, Kim McWilliamms, Marilyn McQueen, Helen Norberg, Debbie Pemberton, Lola Mae Keller, Shirley Mathews, Donna Bench, Grace Esplen, Mazie Davies, Joanne Hopkins, Suzanne Moffett, Harriet Bakly, Arlene McMillan, Norma Nausin, Evelyn Randal, Carol Walker and Claudia Monson.

Male escorts were Nick Stan,

Direction of the Concord Stake primary program is (l to r) LaRue Clark, 2d coun-

Vince Woods, Bishop James Gautier. Fashions modeled by the men were created by their wives.

The evening's entertainment was brought to a close by the pronouncing of the benediction by President Raymond F. Evanson, followed by the serving of refreshments to the 600 guests present.

Joan Bradbury Snow, president of the Concord Stake primary organization was born in Brigham City, Utah, April 24, 1927. She spent all her school years at Martinez and graduated from Alhambra High School and was married to Jim Snow Dec. 15, 1945 in Martinez. Their marriage was sealed in the Los Angeles Temple February 20, 1959. They have four daughters and one son. Sister Snow started to serve in Primary as a Rainbow teacher in September, 1956.

1st counselor Virginia Eden Jensen was born in a small farming town of Cleveland, Utah, July 11, 1932. She was the first of eight children, attended local schools and was graduated from North Emery High School in Huntington, Utah. She was baptized July 11, 1940, in the Manti Temple by her father, and was baptized for the dead 16 times that same day. On Sept. 6, 1950, she was married to Blaine Jensen in the Manti Temple. They have two daughters and two sons. She has served in the Sunday School, MIA and Primary.

Larue Boyer Clark, 2d counselor was born Oct. 8, 1932, in Arco, Idaho. Her father was a bishop for eleven years. She was educated in the Arco public schools and graduated as salutatorian of the class of 1950. In the fall of 1950, she enrolled as a home economics major at Idaho State College at Pocatello. She met her husband, Melbern J. Clark, there and they were married in the Idaho Falls Temple, Aug. 27, 1952.

Visiting Teachers Convention

Outstanding May event the Concord Stake Relief Society was the visiting teachers' convention May 3, in the Concord chapel. All Relief Society visiting teachers of the stake were honored guests. General chairman for the event was Margery Wenger. The Relief Society theme "Charity Never Fails" was carried out through the day's events.

The special program was conducted by Fern Pike with invocation by Maysie Davis. Margery Wenger spoke. She was followed by a solo by Rachel Ashworth, accompanied by Rene Mortenson. Bishop Stanley addressed the audience and closing prayer was given by President June Coe.

Other chairmen for the

event were Cleo Dahl, Norma Erickson, in charge of the finger foods served to the guests. Table decorations were arranged by Barbara Pemberton and Wittwer. Small purple flowers and greenery surrounded the large round tray of strawberries and the punch bowl.

San Francisco

By Gloria Stracke

San Francisco Ward is saddened by the departure of the Dr. Arthur Budge family to Salt Lake. Budge was 1st counselor in the bishopric and his wife Marion director in Relief Society and Primary pianist. Dr. Budge resigned his commission and work at the U. S. Public Health hospital to accept employment at the Veterans Administration in Salt Lake City.

Robert Croft, Sunday School teacher, his wife Marcene, Primary worker, and twins left for Staten Island, N.Y. where Bob will set up dental practice.

Barbara Harley and Nancy Brown left our ward to move into an apartment in Berkeley. Barbara was a popular Seminary instructor.

Mary Perkins & three youngsters moved to Michigan, as her husband is being sent to Viet Nam; thus the Primary loses another good worker. LaVar Narsh, Institute director, and family have moved into a dorm at Provo while Lavar attends special Institute classes at B.Y.U. Their new son, Jared Ririe Marsh, blessed recently by his father.

Edward Singer has joined the Church making his wife Virginia and three daughters happy. Manuel Solis also accepted baptism, thus uniting his family. Both Ed and Manuel have been ordained deacons.

Kenneth Glew, his twin brother and youngster brother drove to Washington to attend an open house reception in honor of their mother for her 90th birthday, held at the home of a daughter in Tacoma. Eight of the nine children were present of 54 relatives who attended. Mrs. Glew has nine living children, 35 grandchildren, 82 great grandchildren and eight great, great grandchildren. Ken, a niece in Portland and a nephew are the only converts to the church.

The closing Relief Society social was a treat of food & fun, using a hoedown theme. George Aaron called the square dancing. The Relief Society also sponsored a cultural event that featured the voices of Vivian and Clayne Robison accompanied by Mary Dennis at the piano. Louise Olsen gave two readings.

Sister Ella Mozelle Alger, wife of the bishop of San Francisco Ward, was the recipient of an honorary Golden Gleaner award at our June stake quarterly conference. This high Church award was given in acknowledgement of the many months of devoted service in leadership position with the youth.

Balboa Ward

By Mary Skagfjord

Balboa Ward members have welcomed home Alfred Fabella from serving in the Brazilian Mission.

Forty members enjoyed a breakfast of hot cakes, sausages and eggs cooked by the elders' quorum at the stake farm near Half Moon Bay. Then they worked on the farm, invigorated by the manual labor, warm sunshine and fresh air.

John Miller, son of Lawrence O. and Ica Miller returned from BYU with the highest award given by the State of Utah to the athlete who contributed the most in athletics. It is the Dale-Rex award. Also he received the BYU award for 1968 to the most valuable player. John excels in golf and these awards were for his achievements in this sport.

Three year graduates from Seminary were: Shirley Bennion, Joe Boggs, Dawn Dillender, Steve Sanchez and Roger Taylor. Four year graduates were: Laura Taylor and Bonnie Van Fosson.

Primary will be held from 10 a.m. to 1:45 every Wednesday through July 31.

Relief Society will meet Tuesdays

BYU Awards 2,850 Degrees

A record total of 2,850 degrees were awarded to Brigham Young University graduates at commencement exercises May 31, it was announced by President Ernest L. Wilkinson. The services were held in George Albert Smith Fieldhouse.

In the total are 2,341 bachelor's degrees, 321 master's degrees, 23 doctor's degrees and 165 associate degrees. The total represents an increase of 15.8 per cent over the 2,462 degrees conferred at spring exercises in 1967.

There are 1,843 men (64.7 percent) and 1,007 women (35.3 percent).

The College of Social Sciences has the largest number of graduates with 516. This represents 18.1 percent of the graduating class. The College of Business and the College of Humanities follow with 336 and 260 graduates, respectively.

The graduates come from 47 states, the District of Columbia, and 27 foreign countries, and 48 percent transferred from other institutions.

The State of Utah contributes the largest number with 921, or 32 percent of the class. California follows with 620 and Idaho with 344.

Married students make up 47 percent of the class, and 92 percent of these marriages were performed in LDS temples.

The grade point average for graduates receiving the bachelor's degree is 2.83 (4.0 is A).

Al Heiner Is BYU Business Speaker

Albert P. Heiner, vice-president of public relations and traffic for the Kaiser Steel Corporation, was featured speaker May 9, as a part of the Brigham Young University 1968 Executive Lectures sponsored by the College of Business.

Addressing interested business students, faculty and the public at 4:10 p.m. in the Joseph Smith Auditorium, Mr. Heiner spoke on "Trends in World Steel."

Mr. Heiner joined the Kaiser organization in 1942. In 1948 he was named assistant to the vice-president in charge of public relations and traffic and was appointed vice-president of that department in 1954.

He holds an A.B. degree from the University of Utah (1936) and an M.B.A. degree from the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration (1938).

Two little models; Stephanie Hathaway, 6, Valerie Hathaway, 2.

The Women's Relief Society of Fremont 2nd Ward held a fashion show followed by a luncheon. Theme of the show was "Lovely Month of May" and the decorations were maypoles and spring fresh flowers. Dresses, suits, evening wear, sports clothes, and lingerie were modeled by the women of the Church coached by JoAnne Gunson.

The lingerie was from Le Voy's of Salt Lake City, Utah and was the high light of the events. Karen Winkle is the representative for Le Voy's in this area. Dottie Borg of Fremont 1st Ward displayed her many hats while Jean Shirk showed off her lovely jewelry, some of which she designed.

Grace Blazian is Relief Society president. To give her support is Lois Jarman, chairman of the fashion show, and Donna Bergner. Narrator was Leak McLaughlin. Decorations were credited to Shirley LaFollette, Janet Jones, and Renee Hoding. Marjory Bernards was presented a 25-year pin for her work in Relief Society. Songs were presented by Joan Stam and a duet by Janet and Gwen Crandall. Theola

OAKLAND FIFTH

2 Missionaries Give Reports

By Marjorie Root

Two missionaries have returned home and have reported to the ward: Elder Douglas Young was released from the North German Mission May 28 and Elder William Rodgers from the Central Atlantic States May 9. We have two full time missionaries from Arizona: Elders James Martin and Norman Fish.

Those 'snazzy' new uniforms the Oakland Fifth ward players are sporting were earned by the boys in various fund raising activities. The boys would like to see their names in the Messenger. They are:

Gregg Gadd, Steve Young, Gregg Nottage, Bill Christensen, Gregg Griffen, David Paulsen, Tim Cannon, Steve Cannon, John Lindsay, Harry Lindsay, Steve Lindsay, John Olszowka, Carl Petersen, Paul Ahanesian and Keith Ogden.

Dave Byrnes is their coach. Brother Cornell Jarman, representing the stake, presented the belated 1967 second place trophy to John Lindsay on behalf of the team.

Bishop Wickel presented awards won by the boys at the Stake Track Meet for Aaronic Priesthood, at Sacrament meeting. Some of the following boys won as many as four awards: John Olszowka, Steve Young, Kent Palmer, Carl Petersen, Gregg Gadd, Dave Paulsen, Tom Ogden, John Lindsay, Tim Cannon, Mark Griffen. The Fifth ward placed fourth.

Mothers of Boy Scouts who earned their first and second class awards were pinned in Sacrament meeting by Allen Oaulson, second class; Kent Palmer, first class; and Carl Petersen, first class.

May 24 will always be a special day in the lives of two families in the Fifth ward. Geoffrey C. (Jeff) and Margaret Millward, with their adopted son, Matthew Charles; and Clarence P. and Mary Bingham, with their adopted son, Eric, went to the Temple for that most important ordinance of sealing children to parents.

Two Little Boys Die By Drowning

Tragedy struck twice in quick succession in the drowning of two little boys in San Leandro last month. Howard, a speaker at the funeral of two-year-old Melvin M. Danielson, had just attended a similar service for his own son (story elsewhere in this issue.)

The Danielson boy, son of Brother and Sister Melvin D. Danielson, apparently had wandered into the fenced back yard of a neighbor and fallen into their swimming pool where his body was found floating the evening of June 23. Services're held at the San Lorenzo 2d Ward.

Bishop Thomas Green

Bishop Thomas Green was born in Pocatello, Idaho June 12, 1936. He is the son of Fremont Stake Patriarch J. Ward and Preil Green. He has two sisters, Mrs. Eugene (Rebecca) Jacobs of Los Angeles and Mrs. Douglas (Barbara) Pimentel of Fremont. In 1941 the Green family decided to move to Berkeley, and Albany School was where Tom started his education. After he graduated from high school he entered the University of California for one year, then went on to Brigham Young University.

Tom met and married Norene McClellan April 3, 1959, in the Salt Lake Temple. Norene is the daughter of David and Maragaret McClellan. David is president of Hayward Stake. While attending B.Y.U. Tom and Norene were working as head residence or 70 girls at Heritage Hall for two years. He also served as 2nd counselor to Bishop Harold Goodman in B.Y.U. 16th Ward.

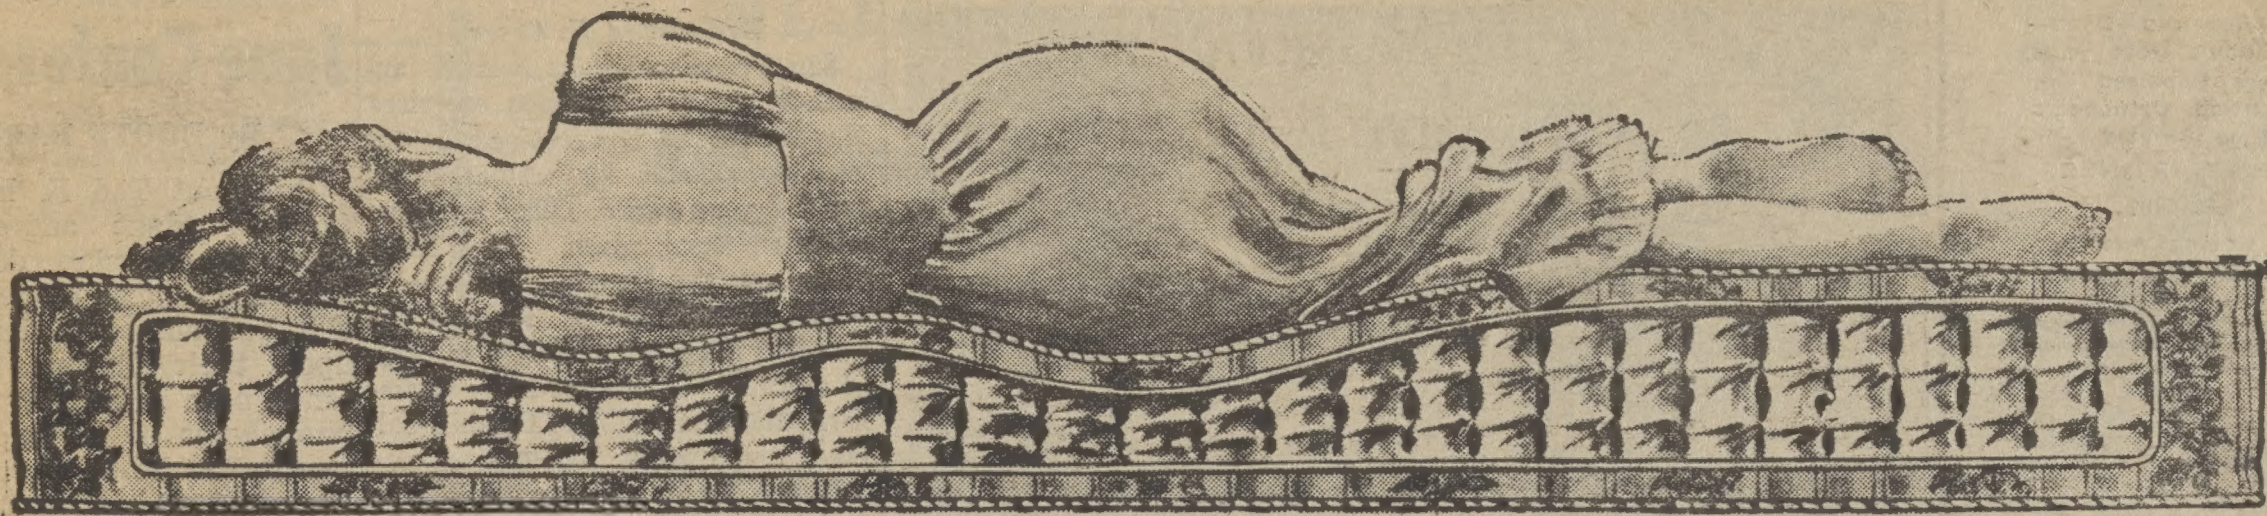

After he graduated in 1962 he worked at Price Waterhouse Co., and at Modulux Inc. in Fremont. In January this year he went into business for himself as a certified public accountant. They both come from pioneer families. Tom's grandfather helped to construct the Salt Lake Temple. Tom was called to serve as bishop of the Fremont 2nd Ward in 1966 when a new ward was started. He served two years on a mission in the Central Atlantic States. He is the father of five children, Crystal 8, Coralee 6, Brent 5, Tamara 3 and Michelle 1. Whenever there is ball playing you will see Bishop Thomas Green as this is his favorite sport.

BYU Engineers Tops In Nation

Brigham Young University's student chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers rates among the top five chapters in the country on the basis of its activities during the past six years.

Word has ben received that BYU's chapter is one of 26 selected this year to receive a certificate of commendation from the Society. This marks the sixth consecutive year that BYU has been so honored, which places it among the nation's top five chapters. According to Dr. D. Allan Firmage, faculty advisor to the chapter, there are currently 173 ASCE student chapters in the United States.

School showed films of the Antioch-Pittsburg football game and a Walt Disney movie. Representatives of the Bishopric attending were Charlie Peters and Lowell Budge.

Fremont Ward Cubs Advance

VERNON SPOON, receives congratulations on his advancement into the Scout program from five-year veteran Cub Scout leader DAN BROWN. New Webelo Scout SCOTT

By Dorothy A. Spoon

Fremont Ward's Cub Scout Pack No. 260 May Meeting had a full schedule with Uniform Inspection, Oward Night and with the theme being "Davy Jones Locker," Sister Merlyn Jackman's Den 4 presented a skit. Cub Scout participants were: Mitchel Bryan, Jeff Kinney, Jed Mofitt, Lance Jackman, Steve Petruzzi, Mike Schafir, and Bobby Jeppson.

JACKMAN is getting a sneak preview of what he has to look forward to next year. Standing next to him is GARY PIMENTEL, a Webelo Scout of about months.

Awards were presented to:

VERNON SPOON — Geologist, Forester, Artist, Scholar, 3 yr. Pin, 100% Attendance, Webelos Badge.

DENNER BADGES — Floyd Chapin, Kenny Steadman, Brian Bennett.

GARY PIMENTEL — Travelers, Scientist, Citizens.

BOB McBRIDE — Travelers, Outdoorsman.

1 Yr. PIN — Kenny Steadman

BOB CAT PIN — Brian Bennett

RICHARD DEAL — Travelers, Citizen, Showman.

ASSISTANT DENNER BADGES — Floyd Chapin, Dallas Empey, Tim Battle, Greg Black, Butch Hebert.

Entertainment with A Message — Tuesday May 21, the MIA Drama production "All in Favor" was shown to a full house in the Fremont Ward cultural hall. usic was under direction of Rose Winkel with Marlene Hughes at the piano. The drama director Ken Mason was congratulated for a job well done, as well as pinch drama director, or "pinch hitter," Hanne Halladay for being up to bat when rother Mason unexpectedly was put in the hospital with back trouble. tage hands Phil Mitchell and uy Moore with the sound effects, lighting and rops cooperated well with the cast in the pantomime work throughout the play. Makeup by Carolyn Reed and Leota Powdys was simple and well done. Publicity by Laurie Lincoln brought goo results.

Hard work of the MIA aukiliary as a whole was rewarded by good attendance at Fremont War's first art exhibit, held Tuesday June 11.

Andrew M. Bergloff, a high school art teacher from Fremont 2d Ward, was the guest speaker on the history of art.

In the house beautiful section there were many antiques on display. A combination rocker, chair and high chair for a child frof the Francis B. Winkel home, as an old trunk. A combination toy box, coat hanger and mirror antique piece antiqued by Mrs. V. R. Anthony, mother of Dorothy A. Spoon, and a oot stool antiqued by Hanne Halladay were a few of the antique pieces on display. Dorothy Borg had a "how to make a hat" display in the boutique section. Cera-

Mission Ward

By Leonard W. Cryer

San Francisco Stake held its annual Seminary graduation exercises May 26. Donald Cox received the 4th year award, and his brother, Fred, the 3rd year award. Other 3rd year awards were given to Mary Chambers and Donald Thomsen.

MIA girls looking forward to spending the week of July 6 through 12 at Camp Liahana are Mary Chambers, Ramona Calbillo, Cynthia Calbillo, and Cynthia Libby.

New YMMIA officers are Moliau Tupai as M-Men leader, and Joe Richardson are Explorer advisor.

New officers were called in the fourth quorum of elders in May. New 1st counselor is Muliau Afuvai, and the new secretary is Lemmie U. Brown. The new teacher of the quorum is Leonard . Cryer.

Also in May, two Mission Ward youth were ordained to the office of deacon: Kurt Gottinger and Winston Parkhurst.

Another youth, Larry P. Schofield, a convert in 1967, was graduated from high school in June and on June 14, enlisted in the Navy.

A new young sister in the ward, Linda Eckert, is in San Francisco, working for VISTA—VOLUNTEERS IN SERVICE TO AMERICA, the domestic version of the Peace Corps.

When she is not working for U.S., Sister Eckert is fulfilling ward assignments, such as an MIA worker, and an assistant Sunday School teacher.

mics, pottery and knitting and needling were also on display.

In the Hobby Haven section was a dislay of coins through the courtesy of Brotheer and Sister Wootton from Fremont 2d Ward. Flower arrangements with real flowers through the courtesy of Sister Ortie Green and some home made flowers by Sisters' ylvia Hansen and others.

Dallas Empey has the makings of an artist of the future exefplified by his paintings on display in the Kiddie Craft.

Concord Stake
June Conference

By BOOTS BARRUS

President Ted E. Madsen of Concord Stake addressed the stake membership during the June 2 quarterly conference session and admonished all to call upon their bishops for assistance both financially and temporarily as he is the father of porally as he is the father of the ward as has been called by the Lord to guide and direct each member within his bounds. He urged all to uphold each bishop with word, action and prayer and to avoid destructive criticism, allowing no evil speaking of those called to fill this position. He introduced each bishop of the nine wards and closed his remarks with the advice for all to be doers of the word and not hearers of the word only, to be lifters and not leaners.

Music for the conference session was furnished by the Concord Stake Singing Mothers chorus, who sang two numbers under direction of Lenore Wittwer, accompanied by Laura Muceus. Audience hymns were led by Mildred Gibbs with Myla Austin at the organ.

To be ordained to offices in the Melchezidek Priesthood were John Kuipers, Paul Wm. Mells, John Everett Huovinen, Thomas T. Trimble, Richard J. Parker, Glen Jack Bravold, and John Neal McClintock to the office of elder; Barr Musser to the office of high priest.

Called as the new mission presidency of Concord Stake were Newall Walker, president, and Robert Twigg, 1st counselor and Howard Bishop, 2nd counselor.

MARK HUNT and GARY LANE, members of Explorer Post 16, have completed the necessary qualifica- tions to obtain the coveted rank of Eagle Scout.

At recent impressive investiture services conducted by the presi- dent of the Alameda Council, Boy Scouts of America, Franz Collen- schoen, the two young men were installed in this highest of Scout ranks before Alameda Ward. The keynote address was given by Scout Executive John McKie. Both mothers were presented minature eagles and the fathers with eagle tie clips.

Both Mark and Gary have been active in their Priesthood duties and attend Alameda High School.

Alfred O. Addy

By Leonard W. Cryer

Services were held in San Fran- cisco, July 1 for Alfred O. Addy, veteran militant trade unionist, & father of Olfred W. Addy, editor of the Northern California Teamster.

Elder Addy, 77, die June 29 in Mary's Help Hospital after an illness of several months.

Born in Utah, July 16, 1893 he was a Mormon. He worked in the silver mines in Utah and was active in labor unions. He was a member of the industrial Workers of the World, Western Federation of Miners, and, after coming to San Francisco in 1930, in Plumbers & Pipefitters Local 380. Most of his 38 years in San Francisco he was a member of Mission Ward, & helped in erecting the building at 3715 26th Street, de- dicated in September 1951. Because of a bad heart condition, he was unable to participate in Church activi- ties in recent years.

Besides his son, Elder Addy is survived by his wife, Lillian, also a Mission War member; two daugh- ters, Mrs. Bernice Cloke of San Francisco and Mrs. Sybil E. Nunan of Redwood City; a brother and three sisters. Leonard Addy, Mrs. Ruth Armstrong and Mrs. Emma Hardie of Utah seven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

His funeral was hel under the auspices of the Mission Ward Bis- hopric.

Somewhere we read where a local retailer, Abbey Carpets, is offering to carpet your home for $383. We glanced at their room plan and added up the yardages for the various rooms. The lot came to slightly more than 50 sq. yds. for the entire house. We believe that most of our readers will require more than 50 sq. yds. to carpet their house. (50 yds. may be sufficient for some living rooms plus a dining area & a small hallway — seldom enough for the entire house.)

We also believe that not many of our Messenger friends read that kind of advertising. However, as Dennis Lauper points out, they do have 17 stores so there are some people who didn't get the word about LAUPER'S.

Please phone us now and let's talk shop. LAUPER'S installed the Temple carpet. Will you trust us to carpet your home or office?
